From the Editor

Well the weather is starting to improve as we head into April. With the recent rain showers we are seeing a great start into blooming flowers in May. Truth be told, flowers are already eagerly starting to pop up in those sunny areas. I say, yes!!!, please bring us warmer weather.

Things are picking up with all the quilting retreats in full force. It is always such a pleasure to meet new quilters and see some of the exciting and beautiful projects that they are involved in.

Please note that the shop will be closed on Friday April 15th and Saturday April 16th in recognition of the Easter statutory holiday. —> Happy Quilting!

Whats New In Fabrics

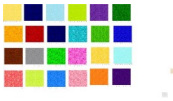

1803 Pathways by Kaye England for Wilmington Prints — 100% Cotton This collection includes lacey florals in rich colors of golden tan, rosey pinks, and “breen” (brownish-green) with creams and blacks. Kits available now— Kits include fabric for twin quilt (66” x 80½”) as well as a bonus sham (32” x26”). Or create your own masterpiece using this stunning collection

Saddle Up by Ellen and Clark Studio by Northcott, is a new look for the classic western theme. The western geometric patterns and realistic leather prints and a palette of natural hues of brown and rust to beige and cream characterize this collection. Whether it’s a wall hanging, placemat or table runner, this collection is sure to bring the cowboy out of anyone.

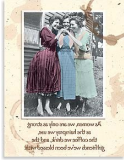

CAT Panel by Riley Blake Designs—All about construction equipment this exquisite panel features a Dump Truck, Excavator, Front End Loader and a Bulldozer— 4 key components in the construction world.

MixMaster Mash Up Blenders — by Patrick Lose This collection is a stunning display of blender fabric in vibrant hues. Add this breathtaking print to your next project!
