From the Editor

We are starting to enjoy some beautiful weather, the days are longer, flowers are blooming, trees have new foliage and the birds are singing. Love it. We have a number of new lines arriving this month for you to enjoy. Also, we will be once again offering a Block of the Month Program featuring a beautiful batik quilt from Northcott. Drop by to check out the poster and get your name on the list if you are interested as there are very limited spots available.

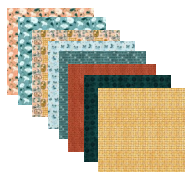

What's New In Fabrics

Luminosity — Created by Deborah Edwards, this collection features a mix of butterflies, dragonflies, feathers and wings in a shimmering palette of navy, lagoon, turquoise, green and lime with gold metallic accents. There are two distinct borders included, one of ombre peacock feathers and the other a damask incorporating dragonfly and butterfly motifs. A stunning and beautiful collection. Available in kits as well.

Cat Tales — by Charles Wysocki and Deborah Edwards — this collection features books, cats and curiosities in a 43" running yardage providing maximum variety and flexibility. The original print was created by the late, very talented and prolific American Artist, Charles Wysocki. Inspired by the focal print, Deborah Edwards created a collection of patterns to compliment the feature at the same time paying homage to the artist. A wide variety of prints including, books, cats and curiosities as well as checks, woodgrains and leather add balance and grace, Available in kits.

Daybreak — from Figo, this collection is a sophisticated collection containing beautiful floral prints, butterflies and abstract motifs. Offered in a trendy colour palette using shades of terracotta, turmeric and teal, these textures add a lot of dimension and movement to designs.
