

Quilting News - November 2022

From the Editor

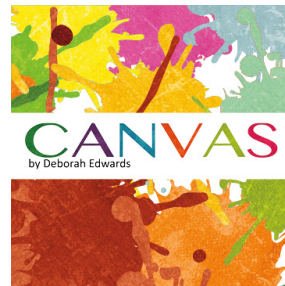

With autumn slowly slipping away and weather dipping slightly, we are more focused on getting out our sewing machines, cleaning them up in preparation to all the new projects you have planned. November will open doors to many new fabric collections, projects and patterns to make for yourself or gift to your friends.

This month we will see Daylight Savings Time ending and will be honoring our veterans on Remembrance Day as well as a pre-holiday sale. Watch for future announcements.
